

Firas Azmeh

President, Mobile Endpoint Security

As the President of Lookout's Mobile Endpoint Security (MES) business, Firas Azmeh is responsible for the operational planning and execution of strategic product innovation, revenue, and profitability goals aligned to MES. Prior to this role, Firas served as Chief Revenue Officer at consumer mobile security company F-Secure, where he was responsible for overall revenue across the organization's Direct and Partner business. He also previously served as President of Lookout Life, the consumer arm of Lookout and was responsible for product, sales, marketing, and partnerships before that business unit was acquired by F-Secure. Firas has a strong track record of success working with a wide range of startups within the wireless and mobility industries.
